Report: The Refuse to Use group continues to be very strong. We continue to meet 5 times each week, with our birthday meeting on the first Friday of every month (pizza provided by the group) and a speaker meeting the 3rd Friday of every month. At this time, we have a schedule in place for the speaker meeting consisting of our home group members sharing their story's. We realized that we sit in meeting with the same people year after year and never really hear their story, so thought this would be a great way to get to really know each other. Steve H., Mark S., Rick L.,

DeLynda H., and Brittney P. have all shared their stories, and on the 21st, Cody P. will share his. We would like to invite you all to Evanston, to any of our meetings, to come and experience recovery Wyoming style!! Woot woot, we totally rock!! We are so grateful to be a part of the Lakeside Unity Area and we will keep coming back! – Brittney P., Alt. GSR for the RTU.

Zach S. Thinks the area as a whole should establish a door greeter position. Talk to your homegroups about how they make newcomers feel welcome.

Jess G. Wanting to make more GSR service books.

Rusty C. Paid for a phone line and wondering why we aren't using it. Brittini K suggested we could use a google number that is less expensive and can have up to 5 lines. Rusty is going to get ahold of northern and get a phone report list. How does area feel about getting a new storage unit. Rusty will do the leg work and find a new storage unit.

Talked about different ways to collect 7th tradition
